

SPEEDMARKET AVENUE

"I'm Going To Let My New Swiss Army Knife Answer To That" | CD | FF-03

Release date: March 3, 2004

There they were. And, just like every great pop band over the years, Speedmarket Avenue felt complete right from the start. Sensitivity, melodies and playing skills; they had it all. In abundance. Those of us who got to meet the band in every possible (and impossible) concert venue could but salute their well-crafted pop songs and their obvious joy at having the opportunity of performing them for us there and then. The often difficult transition from stage and fleeting moments to studio and recordings has been achieved with the able help of producer Fredrik Norberg and "I Am Going To Let My New Swiss Army Knife Answer To That" is the sound of a band who knows what they're doing. And are pleased to share it with anyone who cares to listen.

*Kristian Rosengren
(Aerospace, The Legends)*

Track Listing

1. Will That Do
2. You Set the Terms
3. Leave. Now.
4. I Can Tell by Her Eyes
5. Home
6. From the Barricades
7. Last Song
8. He's a Rebel
9. You're Not That Foreign Anymore
10. Here to Follow

Produced by Fredrik Norberg

Discography

"Is Anything Ever Done?", 7" (Modesto Records, 2002)

"Speedmarket Avenue" ,CDEP (Soundquest Records, 2000)

Compilations:

Sonically Speaking #10, CD (Sonic Magazine, 2003)

Mjuk i mössan, CD (Absurd Records, 2003)

My secret garden, CD (No Disco, 2003)

Sounding sad upon the radio, CD (Revo 9, 2002)

Speedmarket Avenue

Isak Klasson
Thomas Holm
Tom Wikström
Magnus Lundin
Johan Angantyr